I'll Go Back to the Red, White and Blue

Song and Chorus

By

LORENA E. DIVET

SEDALIA, MISSOURI:
ublished by A. W. PERRY'S SONS, Music Publishers.

I'll go Back to the Red, White, and Blue.

SONG AND CHORUS.

LORENA E. DIVET.

Moderato.
m Ped.
Ped.
Ped.
Ped.
p
Oh I got a mes - sage this morn - ing It came from a conn - try a -
When I sailed from my own na - tive coun - try, On the out- ward bound ves - sel that I'll go back to my own na - tive coun - try, I'll go back to the Dutch bat- tle
p far, It told me the one that I loved best: Would day, I thought that my love would be with me, When the line. And I'll bind up the wounds of the sol - diers That cres.

Copyright MCMXVI by A. W. Perry's Sons.

p uev - er come back from the war. I am far from my own na - tive snow fell on this New Year's Day. For he said "we will not long be fell to the "Watch on the Rhine". I'll go where the fall - en are dim
p coun - try, I have crossed o'er the deep o - cean's brine. I am part - ed: I will soon join your lit - tle home band. But he ma - ny For the sake of my lov - er so true. When my safe 'neath the Star-Span-gled Ban - ner, While he sleeps all a - lone on the Rhine.
stayed at the call of the Kai - ser; To fight for the Dutch Fath -er- land.
coun-try shall need me no lon - ger, I'll go back to the Red, White, and Blue.

CHORUS.

m
f
And this is the let - ter he wrote me, "I will to my m Ped.
Ped.
f Ped.
coun - try be true, But I'm glad that my own lit - tle
Ped.
Ped.
Ped.
Dutch girl is safe 'neath the Red, White and Blue."
Ped.
Ped.
Ped.